La Roche, de

A letter from Quebec to M. I. Maine, a French officer. Which contains a particular account of the present designs of the French upon the English in North America; what force the French have collected, their several divisions, and the places destin'd for each. Likewise an account of the defenceless condition of the English provinces and colonies, and the methods made use of by the French, to procure such intelligence. Newport, Rhode-Island, Printed and sold by J. Franklin, 1754.

Leather: a discourse, tendered to the high court of Parliament. Of the general use of leather. The general abuse thereof. The good which may arise to Great Brittain from the reformation. The several statutes made in that behalf, by our ancient kings. And lastly, a petition to the high court of Parliament, that out of their pious care to their country, they would be pleased to take into consideration, the redress of all old abuses, and by adding some remedies of their own, to cut off the new.
